DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1 to 49 are presented for examination.

Response to Amendment

2. The rejection of claims 1, to 26 and 27 as being obvious over Michel et al. '607' in view of Michel et al. '383' is withdrawn.

3. The rejection of claims 28 to 293 as being obvious over Michel et al. '607' in view of Michel et al. '383' further in view of Diasonescu et al. is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The language of the claim raises a question as to whether the claim is directed merely to an abstract idea that is not tied to a technology art, environment or machine which would result in a practical application producing a concrete, useful, and tangible result to form the basis of statutory subjected matter under 35 U.S.C. 101.

Art Unit: 2133

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2 to 29 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
6. Claims 30 to 49 are allowed for the reasons set forth in the first office action.
